

I ask that the FCC halt its effort to amend the current Telephone Consumer Protection Act to require prior written approval before sending faxed communications even when an “existing business relationship” is in place.